Radcliffe on Trent Pre-school Playgroup's Privacy Notice

Radcliffe on Trent Pre-school Playgroup, Bingham Road, Radcliffe on Trent, Nottingham NG12 2FU

Introduction

We are committed to ensuring that any personal data we hold about you and your child is protected in accordance with data protection laws and is used in line with your expectations. This privacy notice explains what personal data we collect, why we collect it, how we use it and how we protect it.

What personal data do we collect?

We collect personal data about you and your child to provide care and learning that is tailored to meet your child's individual needs. We also collect information in order to verify your eligibility for free childcare as applicable.

Personal details that we collect about your child include:

- your child's name, date of birth, address, religious and ethnic background and language spoken, health and medical information and needs including allergies, family circumstances including any social care, development needs, and any special educational needs,

Where applicable we will obtain child protection plans from social care and health care plans from health professionals.

We will also ask for information about who has parental responsibility for your child and any court orders pertaining to your child.

Personal details that we collect about you include:

- your name, home and work address, email address, phone numbers, emergency contact details, and family details.

This information will be collected from you directly in the application form and registration forms, and may be collected again in eg extra session forms, notice forms, nursery walk consent forms etc.

If you apply for up to 30 hours free childcare, or agree to us collect data to ascertain your eligibility to Pupil Premium, we will also collect:

- your national insurance number, or unique taxpayer reference (UTR) if you're self-employed, and your date of birth. We may also collect information regarding benefits and family credits that you are in receipt of.

We send out a separate Privacy Notice to you where your child claims any funding through the Local Authority. This is sent with your child's new starter pack and explains the basis on which information is held by the Local Authority for the purposes of claiming Government funding.

Why we collect this information and the legal basis for handling your data

We use personal data about you and your child in order to provide childcare services and fulfil the contractual arrangement you have entered into. This includes using your data to:

- contact you in case of an emergency
- support your child's wellbeing and development
- manage any special educational, health or medical needs of your child whilst at our setting
- carry out regular assessment of your child's progress and to identify any areas of concern
- maintain contact with you about your child's progress and respond to any questions you may have
- process your claim for up to 30 hours free childcare, Pupil Premium or other Government funding as relevant (only where applicable)
- keep you updated with information about our service

With your consent, we will also record your child's activities for their individual learning and development record (on Tapestry or in any other form that we may have agreed with you). This may include photographs and videos. You will have the opportunity to withdraw your consent at any time for images taken by confirming so in writing.

We have a legal obligation to process safeguarding related data about your child should we have concerns about their welfare. We also have a legal obligation to transfer records and certain information about your child to the school or nursery that your child will be attending (see Transfer of Records policy).

Who we share your data with

In order for us to deliver childcare services we will also share your data as required with the following categories of recipients:

- Ofsted – during an inspection or following a complaint about our service
- banking services to process chip and pin and/or direct debit payments (as applicable)
- the Local Authority (where you claim the universal 15 hours, up to 30 hours free childcare, Pupil Premium or DCATCH as applicable)
- the Government's eligibility checker for the 30 hour entitlement (as above)
- our insurance underwriter (if applicable)
- our setting software management provider (if applicable)
- the school or nursery that your child will be attending.

We will also share your data:

- if we are legally required to do so, for example, by law, by a court or the Charity Commission;
- in order to enforce or apply the terms and conditions of your contract with us;
- in order to protect your child and other children; for example, by sharing information with social care or the police;
- if it is necessary to protect our rights, property or safety

- if we transfer the management of the setting, in which case we may disclose your personal data to the prospective buyer so they may continue the service in the same way.

We will never share your data with any other organisation to use for their own purposes

How do we protect your data?

We protect unauthorised access to your personal data and prevent it from being lost, accidentally destroyed, misused, or disclosed by

- keeping files containing personal data in a secure location which is locked overnight. Only authorised persons have access to such files
- ensuring that computers and other devices on which data is stored are password protected and can be accessed only by authorised users. Computers and such other devices are stored in a secure location which is locked overnight. Data is backed up securely.

How long do we retain your data?

We retain your child's personal data for up to 3 years after your child no longer uses our setting, or until our next Ofsted inspection after your child leaves the setting. Medication records and accident records are kept for longer according to legal requirements. Your child's learning and development records are maintained by us and handed to you when your child leaves.

In some instances (child protection, or other support service referrals) we are obliged to keep your data for longer if it is necessary to comply with legal requirements (see our Children's and Provider Records policies).

Automated decision-making

We do not make any decisions about your child based solely on automated decision-making.

Your rights with respect to your data

You have the right to:

- request access, amend or correct your/your child's personal data
- request that we delete or stop processing your/your child's personal data, for example where the data is no longer necessary for the purposes of processing; and
- request that we transfer your, and your child's, personal data to another person

If you wish to exercise any of these rights at any time or if you have any questions, comments or concerns about this privacy notice, or how we handle your data please contact us. If you continue to have concerns about the way your data is handled and remain dissatisfied after raising your concern with us, you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner Office (ICO). The ICO can be contacted at Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF or ico.org.uk/
